STEAMER BURNED.

Crew and Passengers Saved by Whaling Schooner.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 22. The steamer Lorenzo D. Baker, from Port Antonio for Boston with fruit, consigned to the Boston Fruit Co., has been burned at sea. The crew arrived at this port this morning on the whaling schooner Franklin.

The steamer left Port Antonio July 10th with a cargo of fruit. There were twenty-seven persons on board including six passengers.

About midnight of July 15th the engineer's room was found to be on fire. The captain ordered the fire hose on, but the engineer said that he could not get at the pumps. The passengers were awakened and the steamer's boats ordered to be swung out.

The Fire was Burning Fiercely and one of the boats caught fire. The other boat was lowered and the passengers taken off. A raft was also put out and the men on board the raft were seen and taken in the boat with the passengers. The wind had increased and the sea was running very high and the boat was more than a mile from the wreck. After rowing some time a sailor was seen floating on the gangway steps. He was taken aboard. Shortly afterwards, a schooner was seen bearing down to the ship. She lay by and took off some of the men from the wreck who had been cut off from the boats by the fire.

The Schooner Soon Reached

the boat containing passengers and all were soon taken aboard. She proved to be the whaling schooner Franklin, of New Bedford, and it was found that she had taken five men from a spar alongside. Two of the five men were drowned. The most generous treatment was shown the shipwrecked persons and they were furnished with dry clothing.

THE WEST VIRGINIA FLOODS

The Number of Drowned Reaches Seventeen.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 22. Intelligencer specials from the flood district, near Parkersburg, state that the complete list of drowned, so far as known, numbers seventeen. It is thought the death list will be much larger when the districts now cut off from the outside world are heard from. The damage to property cannot be estimated at present. Hundreds of people lost all they possessed, and many families are homeless. A late despatch says, that the village of Morristown, in Wirt county, was swept entirely away. Great suffering exists among those who lost all they possessed and the County Commissioner of Heywood county will issue an appeal for aid.

THE GUNBOAT PETREL.

A Third Trip to be Had.

WASHINGTON, July 22. The board of officers detailed to conduct the official trial of the gunboat Petrel, Saturday, the second official test, will recommend to Secretary Tracy that a third trial be had. The trial Saturday was a failure, due wholly to inexperience of some and fatigue of others of the firemen, the consequence being that Petrel was unable to keep up the force draught desired. Some of the men had been engaged on the vessel during the trial of Tuesday and Thursday, and were soon entirely worn out, while the new hands were incompetent to do the extra amount of work thus forced upon them.

SAD ACCIDENT.

Two Little Children Burned to Death.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 22. Tommy and Agnes Williams, aged five and three years, were burned to death by the explosion of a coal oil can last night. The mother had left the house for a few minutes on an errand, during which the boy secured the oil can, placed it in the middle of the floor, then secured some matches and set the oil on fire.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

Schooner on Her Beam Ends.

NEW YORK, July 22. The steamer Aurania reported to-day that on June 29th last, in lat. 40.23, long. 72.38, the schooner Eva J. Smith was passed, lying on her beam ends with all sails set. The schooner had a large breach in her port side and bore evidence of having been in collision. The Aurania lay alongside of the wreck for some time, but no one was on board.

Miss Dora Wiley has decided to postpone the rendition of the play, "Good for Nothing," which she intended to give in a week or two, until about the first week in September, when it will be given. The cast will include some of the best local talent and will doubtless be very interesting. Miss Wiley is already making preparations for the presentation of "The Daughter of the Regiment," in the fall.

Messrs. Willis I. Bunker and George A. Savage have returned from their trip to Philadelphia and the Raymond excursion to the principal points of interest in Pennsylvania, Maryland and that vicinity. They report a fine trip and an enjoyable time, everything possible being done for the comfort of the party. The visit to the battle fields of Gettysburg was a most interesting occasion.

BASE BALL NOTES. The game which was to occur on Wednesday afternoon with the Baths has been given up, as that club has disbanded.—The next game which will occur is with the champion colored club of Massachusetts, and is expected to be a closely contested game. The Augustas will play here on Saturday. They have strengthened their team greatly and have a new manager. They will be capable of playing great ball, and the contest with the Bangors is expected to be a very exciting one, as both teams will do their best to win.——Oliver Burns has written Manager Toole that he has signed with the Fredericton (N. B.) team, but had his telegram reached him one day sooner he would have been glad to come to Bangor and play. As it is now, he can not get away.——Mr. Toole has received a letter from Steve Neary, of the New Bedfords, to whom he wrote, asking him to play here, saying that he is captain of the New Bedfords and getting a good salary, so he can hardly get away. His team has won eleven out of twelve games played, which is a good showing. Mr. Toole wrote to him to arrange a date for a game in this city soon, and they will probably play here soon. "Honest John" Piggot is playing on the team and they would undoubtedly draw a large crowd at the game. Bert Knowlton of Belfast has also been written to, and it is earnestly hoped that he will come to this city to play on the team, as he would add a great deal of strength to the team, both by his batting and fielding. He is a fine backstop. Manager Toole expects to hear from him to-day. He has been playing with the New Haven team but has returned home on account of some slight injury. The St. John club will play here late in the season ... O'Connell has not been heard from ... real nation ...

STATE NEWS.

Aroostook.

There was a very large attendance at the dedication of the Free Baptist meeting house, Wednesday afternoon, at Presque Isle. The altar, organ, and platform were beautifully decorated with flowers. Rev. Mr. Foster delivered the sermon. In addition to all the new and elegant furnishings of the church, they have had presented to them by J. C. White & Son, a beautifully bound, black morocco Bible, very finely printed, says the Herald.

Cumberland.

Some of the mackerel fleet arrive almost daily, and all tell the same story of scarcity of fish. The few mackerel they secure bring fancy prices, a trip of sixty-five barrels landed in Portland one day, recently, netting about $1,000.

C. C. & F. P. Mayberry, from Boston, Mass., have taken the Richard Mayberry farm at Casco, and are stocking it with horses, and intend making it a stock farm. They have brought from Boston six brood mares and one very promising yearling colt, and will soon add a few more nice horses. They will, another year, build a trotting track on their farm for the training of their colts.

Hancock.

There is a young man at Bar Harbor who is fitting for college on a plan that would delight many a Maine boy. The young man, son of a wealthy New Yorker named Earle, is under the charge of Professor A. E. Twilford, late of Washington College, who is engaged to superintend the preparations for college, which are to go on during a four years' tour of the world. During the summer they will visit the points of interest on the Maine coast and Moosehead Lake, and in the fall travel through the West and California, thence across the ocean. The tutor is said to be a direct descendant of Ethan Allen, of Ticonderoga fame; and may perhaps have inherited iron enough to keep the young man down to study.

Kennebec.

The Trustees of the Insane Hospital have appointed Mr. Frank B. Smith of Augusta, as inspector of all work on the new hospital buildings. Mr. Smith was successor to Otis Pierce on the work at the new post-office, and was highly recommended by many of our business men for the place. Mr. Libby, foreman of mason work, has a great gang at work and is giving good satisfaction. The carpenter work is going on as fast as the mason work allows it. The foundation for both buildings is completed.

Horace Heywood, residing in Winslow, was the victim of a peculiar though very serious accident the other afternoon. He jumped from a load of hay with a pitchfork in his hand and in some way managed to land astride the handle which was drived into his body a distance of nine inches, coming in contact with the hip bone where its progress was checked. Mr. Heywood pulled out the handle, and unharnessed the horse from the hay rack and hitching him to a wagon drove along to Waterville for medical assistance. The surgeons extracted a large piece of cloth from the wound and then for the first time did the man commence to feel any acute pain. He was driven to his home, where he has since been keeping as quiet as possible by advice of the physicians.

Knox.

The light keeper's new dwelling house on Negro Island, Camden Harbor, has just been completed. It is in a modern and pleasing style of architecture and very convenient. It contains six large, airy, well lighted rooms, beside numerous closets, halls, &c. Every floor in the house is of hard pine and the whole house is built in the most thorough manner and of the best materials. In addition to the house, a new barn, boat house and boat slip have been built and everything put in the best condition.

The strike of the paving cutters employed by the Hurricane Granite Company and Booth Brothers at Hurricane Island, which has lasted for nearly four months, was terminated Monday, the 15th. It was settled by arbitration of Mr. William S. White, mayor of Rockland, chosen to represent the company, and Messrs. James Grant of West Sullivan, George Forsyth of Clark's Island, and Charles Lawrence of Vinalhaven, the committee chosen by the Paving Cutters' Union. The settlement was effected by a compromise between what the cutters asked and what the company had previously offered. Arrangements were made for a regular pay-day in the future.

Oxford.

As George L. Cummings of the firm of C. B. Cummings & Sons of Norway, was at work about the planing machine Thursday, the large belt broke and as the end came round it struck Mr. Cummings on the back of the head and neck throwing him to the floor with much force. He was insensible for some time.

Ephraim Bryant of Bird Hill, Bethel, took his hoe and went into the field before 6 o'clock last Wednesday morning, and hoed until after 7 o'clock at night without eating or drinking a mouthful of anything. Thursday he did not work, but Friday went into the field and hoed all day, refusing to eat or drink anything. Saturday he showed signs of insanity and wandered about the farm. At night neighbors were called out to find him. He was found and taken home, where he is failing rapidly.

Sagadahoc.

The Sagadahoc Historical Society have voted that on or before the 15th of August, they will make an excursion to Pemaquid. On the day of the excursion a meeting of the Pemaquid Monument Association will be held; a part of the paved way will be uncovered for the inspection of visitors, while many curious and historic relics will be shown.

It is the intention of the president of the Bath Iron Works to make a bid on one or more of the new government cruisers. The present shops are capable of working three hundred men and the wharf to the south of them is large enough for a yard the size of Cramp's. The advantages of such a plant here in the event of a war would be very great since the entrance to the river could be easily obstructed and no enemy's shot could reach us, twelve miles from the sea. It is most certainly to be hoped that one of the bids made by this firm will prove successful, for it would mean a great deal to Bath.

Somerset.

Messrs. A. H. and C. E. Duren of Fairfield, lost a pair of valuable horses, Thursday. While crossing the bridge from the mill to the shore a stringer broke, throwing them into the pond, where they were drowned. This is the second pair this firm has lost this season.

Washington.

While Mr. Newell, the Taxidermist, of Calais, was in the woods on Thursday week, hunting birds for his business, about the Princeton lakes, he cut his foot so badly that he could not walk, and had to lie out all night. Next day he managed to hobble along in some way till he attracted the attention of some Indians, who brought him to Princeton in a canoe. From there he was brought to Calais on the cars.

Count Schwabe.

AN ECCENTRIC CHARACTER WELL REMEMBERED IN THIS CITY.

Our old time and esteemed friend, Edwin S. Thayer, Esq., of Boston, formerly of this city, writes us as follows concerning the death of the eccentric and [illegible] Count Schwabe, which will be interesting to and revive old memories in many of our older citizens:

In reading ... I notice the death ... this city ...

the above hotel, together with outsiders. The description of this funny old man brings to my mind a famous Sleighing Party that was gotten up for his especial benefit. There were some thirty or forty joined in the excursion out to the old Tim George stand on the Ellsworth Road.

The finest turnout that Shaw & Billings could produce was brought into requisition,—four-in-hand,—with a live Prince standing enveloped in a huge bear-skin coat, and he certainly resembled a bear more than a Prince.

The best dinner that "Uncle Tim" could prepare was awaiting us. Speeches, dancing, etc., followed. Think Hon. John A. Peters, and Dr. A. C. Hamlin were among the party, at any rate Hamlin will not fail to recollect the famous "Tablet" that he got up, and which was enclosed in a large tin case and presented to the Count prior to his departure from Bangor.

To say the Count was liberal does not half express it. The good people of Bangor could not believe that he came by his money honestly, but his bills were all paid, and his remittances came often. I sincerely hope the Grand Army people of this vicinity will take some action upon the Count's death. Trusting the old Kenduskeag is keeping in the even tenor of its way, so unlike our Western streams, and the Electric Road will declare a dividend this year, I am yours, etc.

Distress after eating, heartburn, sick headache and indigestion are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It also creates an appetite.

DYSPEPSIA.

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. We know of no remedy for dyspepsia more successful than Hood's Sarsaparilla. It acts gently, yet surely and efficiently, tones the stomach and other organs, removes the faint feeling, creates a good appetite, cures headache, and refreshes the burdened mind. Give Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial. It will do you good. d

His name is R. J. McKinney; his residence is Woodbury, Hill county, Texas; his statement May, 1889: My little son was cured by S. S. S. of bad and ulcers, the result of a general breaking down of his health from fever. He was considered incurable, but two bottles of Swift's Specific brought him out all right. 13

Mr. John King, of Jackson, Miss., says that he was cured of rheumatism in his feet and legs by taking Swift's Specific. This was after he had tried many other remedies, both internal and external, and paid many doctor's bills. 11

SCROFULA
Is that impurity of the blood which produces unsightly lumps or swellings in the neck; which causes running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or "humors;" which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. It is the most ancient of all diseases, and very few persons are entirely free from it.
How Can It Be CURED
By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. If you suffer from scrofula, try Hood's Sarsaparilla.
"Every spring my wife and children have been troubled with scrofula, my little boy, three years old, being a terrible sufferer. Last spring he was one mass of sores from head to feet. We all took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and all have been cured of the scrofula. My little boy is entirely free from sores, and all four of my children look bright and healthy."

BUT—READ THIS:
Garland, May 11, 1889.
Mr. S. B. Sweetser.
Dear Sir—My little boy's health, Frank A. Morton, seems to be improving every day. He gains in flesh and strength fast. He walks about out doors a good deal.
I think that the Compound Oxygen has done wonders for him. It has been four weeks since he began the Oxygen Treatment. He could not stand alone then. Now he is running about out doors.
I wish that your precious medicine might reach the house of every sufferer. That it might gladden the hearts of every afflicted, one as it has ours in the recovery of our little one. Wishing you success I remain,
Yours truly, MRS. MARIA MONROE.
When this little fellow (five years old) began taking the Oxygen, he was not expected to live three weeks.
LATELY!!
And Mrs. Morton writes: If you could only have seen him the first of April and see him now, the first of June, you would never imagine that it was the same boy. His face is getting round and fat and these fine days he is out all day playing with the other children.

TUESDAY. JULY 23, 1889.

A RIDICULOUS CHALLENGE.

The truth of our reiterated statement that there is absolutely no argument in favor of the liquor saloons, could not have been more conspicuously demonstrated than by the resort to the circulation of the following "petition:"

"We the undersigned citizens of the State of Maine, believe the prohibitory law to be a failure in prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors and against public sentiment, when honestly expressed. Therefore, we ask for the repeal of the constitutional prohibitory amendment, and instead thereof the enactment of a "local option, and high license law," believing that such a law would be respected and enforced, and better promote the cause of temperance and good morals."

This ridiculous challenge to the public sentiment of our community glaringly reveals the lawless purpose underlying its phraseology, as it is put forward by those who protest against the enforcement of the laws we have, and offers no protection for the present or several years to come against any of the evils of the liquor traffic.

This shallow pretext also exposes the folly and deceit of the talk about license laws as effecting any interest of the present day, for if every man, woman and child in Maine favored the repeal of the Prohibitory Amendment and legislation and the enactment of license or local option laws, it would require nearly four years to accomplish the change. And it is coolly proposed that the saloons shall set all laws at defiance during that period!

Of course there is no shadow of probability of securing the repeal of the Prohibitory Constitutional Amendment in Maine; but even if there were such a possibility, it cannot be made a practical question now. In the first place no Legislature is to be elected until next year, and a resolution submitting a repeal of the Amendment could not be considered until after the meeting of the Legislature in January, 1891. If the question should be submitted it could not be voted upon until the election of September, 1892, and if adopted the repeal would not go into effect until the canvass and declaration of the result by the Governor and Council. The resolution submitting the present Amendment was adopted by the Legislature, February 21, 1883, the Amendment was adopted at the polls September 8, 1884, and took effect on the first Wednesday in January, 1885. So, if everybody favored repeal of the Amendment it could not be brought about before January, 1893. And then, at the end of nearly four years from now, every provision of the prohibitory laws would be as much in force as at present, and would so continue until the Legislature should discuss and agree upon a different system.

And during the four years pending, the attempts to secure a change, we are coolly invited to permit the rum-shops of the State to set all laws at defiance and to run riot without regulation or control.

But this so-called "petition" means nothing but an attempted diversion in the interest of the saloons. It is addressed to nobody, as nobody has the power to grant any such petition. It has no bearing upon the vital question of the present day and hour, which is the question whether that which is the law shall be respected and enforced in our community.

We not only advocate enforcing the law because it is the law, but because we believe that Prohibition is the most effective mode of suppressing the evils of the liquor traffic. The people of Maine so believe it and they can point to abundant proofs of its beneficent effects in our State. We believe that the people—a large majority of the people of Bangor, favor Prohibition and earnestly desire the enforcement of the laws against the dram-shops. This sentiment has been voiced from every pulpit in our city, and it is finding more and more emphatic expression among our people in the counting-room, the workshop and the home.

The challenge thrown out by this so-called 'petition for license, which really means four years of nullification, should be accepted by the friends of temperance and good order, and answered by an emphatic expression in favor of upholding the laws.

The Boodlers' Friend.

When Col. John R. Fellows was nominated as District Attorney in New York there was joy in the camp of the boodlers and plug uglies who recognized in him a friend that would be able to serve them a good turn. Fellows was elected with the aid of "Reformer" Cleveland and the expectations of the law breakers have not been disappointed. The New York World tells the story in this brief paragraph:

None of the boodlers or bribers of 1884 secured an acquittal until after their prosecution was placed in charge of John R. Fellows. Since then one of each class has been tried and acquitted. * * * Does Grover Cleveland still view with "considerable personal satisfaction" the result of his interference in our local election?

There now seems to be no reason why the exiles in Canada should not return to New York and once more shine in their old haunts. The law-abiding citizens of that metropolis must feel a deep sense of obligation to ex-President Cleveland for the conspicuous part he played in foisting into office the "Boodlers' Friend."

It Comes High.

The Philadelphia Press says: The Washington newspaper correspondents will not feel highly flattered by the published correspondence between Miss Kate Field and the Viticultural Commission of California. Some months ago invitations were sent to these correspondents to attend a lecture on Prohibition by Miss Field at her hotel. It was supposed to be an honor tendered to the newspaper men—a sort of first-night affair—and refreshments were served. It now turns out that Miss Field sent a bill to the Viticultural Association of $307.50 for the lecture and $150 for the collation, and because some exception was taken by the Governor of California to the charge she speaks in indignant terms of his ignorance of "what was accomplished at that time." The bill has been paid, but it is evident that Miss Field thinks that an effort to inform the Washington newspaper men on the subject of Prohibition should be highly rewarded.

Save the Babies!

Fresh, Pure Milk a Necessity.

It is a well understood fact, daily emphasized by our physicians, that the largest proportion of infantile stomach diseases, such as diarrhea, cholera infantum, etc., are due to the use of poor milk, or milk which is not fresh. It is also true that milk left in the morning will not keep fresh and harmless for twenty-four hours, during hot weather, and that therefore milk to be used by infants should be had fresh twice a day. In order to accommodate customers, I shall, in addition to my usual morning delivery of milk, make a delivery at night to all who will leave their orders.

ITCHING AGONIES.

Every Night I Scratched until the Skin was Raw.

Body covered with scales like spots of mortar. An awful spectacle. Doctors useless. Cure Hopeless. Entirely cured by the Cuticura Remedies in five weeks.

I am going to tell you of the extraordinary change your CUTICURA REMEDIES performed on me. About the 1st of April last I noticed some red pimples like coming out all over my body, but thought nothing of it until some time later on, when it began to look like spots of mortar spotted on, and which came off in layers, accompanied with itching. I would scratch every night until I was raw, then the next night the scales, being formed meanwhile, were scratched off again. In vain did I consult all the doctors in the country, but without aid. After giving up all hopes of recovery, I happened to see an advertisement in the newspaper about your Cuticura Remedies, and purchased them from my druggist, and obtained almost immediate relief. I began to notice that the scaly eruptions gradually dropped off and disappeared one by one, and have been fully cured. I had the disease thirteen months before I began taking the Cuticura Remedies, and in four or five weeks was entirely cured. My disease was eczema and psoriasis. I recommended the Cuticura Remedies to all in my vicinity, and I know of a great many who have taken them, and thank me for the knowledge of them, especially mothers who have babes with scaly eruptions on their heads and bodies. I cannot express in words the thanks to you for what the Cuticura Remedies have been to me. My body was covered with scales, and I was an awful spectacle to behold. Now my skin is as nice and clear as a baby's.

Sept. 21, 1887. GEO. COTEY, Merrill, Wis.

Feb. 7, 1888.—No trace of the disease from which I suffered has shown itself since my cure. G. C.

We don't know that we suffer any more than other Photographers in this respect, but it is a crying evil all the same, and one that we propose to remedy as far as lies in our power, therefore I have decided on a general reduction of prices on all my work, and shall demand part payment at the time of sitting of EVERY ONE. OUR BAR HARBOR MELANGE.

A Beautiful Sight in the Harbor.

The Yacht Fleet Viewed by People in All Sorts of Crafts.

The Four-oared Gig Race.

The Forty-foot Yacht Race to Come Off To-day.

Looking for the Arrival of the French Fleet.

BAR HARBOR, July 22. "They went down to the sea" in canoes, in dingies, in row-boats and in all manner of craft, did the Bar Harbor lassies who had waited and watched for the coming of the fleet, which is now here.

A Beautiful Scene.

The harbor presents a beautiful scene. The yachts of the Eastern and Seawanhaka Corinthian Clubs "dressed ship" at high noon to-day and are gay with various colored streamers. They are arranged in a manner to win the admiration of seafaring men, who always lay claim to a free channel.

The harbor scene at night surpasses that of the day, and the hundreds of lights dance and twinkle like so many stars on the bosom of old ocean. In the distance one is reminded of the lights that show far out on the Mediterranean from the fortifications of Gibraltar.

The streets are taking on some of the old time gayety and even before August the height of the season may be upon us.

between the four oared gigs, which was rowed over a one-half mile course, was not a very exciting affair, as the people on the yachts have had plenty of racing and the people on shore did not hear of it in time. The first prize of $35 was won by the gig of the Sea Fox, the flagship of the Seawanhaka Corinthian Club, and the $15 prize by the Fortuna's gig. The gig of the [illegible] came in third and that of the Nooya fourth.

A Musical.

Mrs. [illegible] gave a charming musical yesterday. Mr. Turpin, of Dayton, Ohio, who has just returned from Florence, where he has been studying under the best masters, and who is possessed of a fine bass voice, sang. The performance on the piano by Mr. Jensen, Secretary of the Russian Legation, was of a most brilliant order.

Notes.

General Butler, who is ill here on the America, professes himself pleased with Bar Harbor. The General called upon Mr. Blaine yesterday, arriving a few minutes after the Secretary had started for church. The America will sail eastward to-morrow.

Should the weather be fair a number of dinners are to be given on yachts to-night and sailing parties are the order of the hour.

The races between the 40-footers will come off to-morrow at 10 A. M. As yet there are but three entries.

The fleets will disband at 10 A. M. Wednesday, when some will sail to the east, some to the west and a number tarrying here.

Mr. Blaine took the four-fifteen train for Ellsworth, where he goes as the guest of Senator Hale.

Latest Arrivals.

Rev. Father John W. Murphy, Vicar-General, of Portland, Rev. Father Daniel Murphy, of Dover, N. H., Father J. E. Barry, of Concord, N. H., and Rev. Father E. M. O'Callaghan, of Portsmouth, N. H., arrived to-night on a vacation.

A lively interest exists over the probable visit of the French fleet. M. Roustan, the French Minister, will visit Newport some day this week with the intention of inducing the fleet to visit Bar Harbor. Should he succeed one of our squadron will undoubtedly accompany the distinguished naval strangers to this port.

The hop at the Malvern, to-night, was a brilliant affair. There was a large attendance. Many yachtsmen came ashore for the occasion.

Entertainment on Yacht Sea Fox.

Commodore and Mrs. Canfield are entertaining tonight on board the Sea Fox, which is gaily illuminated. The race to-morrow is to be sailed over a twenty-mile triangular course. The fleet will disband at 10 A.M., Wednesday. Schooner yachts Alert and Dauntless and steam yacht Unknown of New York, arrived this afternoon.

His wife resides in Massachusetts.

THE NEXT SPEAKER.

Congressman Russell Believes Reed Will Win.

NEW YORK, July 22. A Washington special says that Congressman Russell, of Connecticut, says he is confident that Mr. Reed will be speaker of the next house. He does not consider McKinley a very serious candidate and believes the fight will be between Burrows and Reed and that Reed will win.

FROM CAMDEN.

Death of Hon. Edward Cushing from Apoplexy.

CAMDEN, July 22. Hon. Edward Cushing died this morning of apoplexy. He was a native of Connecticut and came to Camden when a boy to live with an uncle. Most of his life was spent in the steamboat business, beginning as clerk of the old Daniel Webster, of the Portland & Bangor line. He served also for many years as manager of the Portland & Machias line. In politics he was a Democrat. He served in both branches of the legislature and was supported in convention as a candidate for Governor. He was appointed [illegible] at Belfast under President [illegible] age was 7[illegible]. He leaves [illegible] daughters.

THE PRESIDENT'S TRIP

To Be Made to Bar Harbor in August.

WASHINGTON, July 22. Definite arrangements for the trip of President Harrison to Bar Harbor, will probably be decided upon by the President at Deer Park this week. The President's intention is to start about August 5th. As the Maine coast is likely to be wrapped in fog until the middle of the month he may conclude to defer his trip until the latter part of the month when the weather usually is much more pleasant. The trip from Boston to Bar Harbor will probably be by the new Plant Line of steamers, running from Boston to Bar Harbor direct. If the trip to Bar Harbor is made by boat he will return to Boston by rail.

TOTAL WRECK OF A STEAMER.

Runs on Old Man Ledge, off Cutler.

MACHIAS, July 25. The iron steamer Edward, of 1300 tons, light, from Boston for St. John, ran on Old Man, off Cutler, at 12 o'clock Saturday night, and will probably be a total wreck. The captain and crew of thirty men lost all their effects but got ashore.

WHITE WINGS.

Interesting Yacht Races in Portland Harbor.

PORTLAND, July 22. The yacht race of the Dorchester and Portland clubs was interesting to-day. In the first class Restless, owned by E. B. Mallet, Jr., of Portland, the Ianthe and Clytie contested the race, which was won by the Restless in 4 hours, 24 minutes 41 seconds. The Ianthe's time was 4 hours, 52 minutes, 11 seconds; the Clytie's time 5 hours, 18 minutes, 7 seconds. The Bohemian broke her bolt ropes and did not go over the course. Distance 31 miles.

In the second class race the Nomad, of Dorchester, won in 2 hours, 38 minutes and ten seconds; Ethel second in 3 hours, 1 minute and 33 seconds. The Willie and Idler, of Portland, were third and fourth. The Rondina broke her topmast, the Aldo and Magic also meeting with slight mishaps, and fell out.

Commodore Soley gave the $50 cup to the winner in each class.

POSTMASTERS APPOINTED.

Additional for Towns in Maine.

WASHINGTON, July 22. Fourth-class postmasters were appointed to-day as follows for Maine:

Howard Brackett, Cornish.
Everett J. Cook, East Friendship.
E. E. Skillings, Peak's Island.
E. J. Roberts, Richmond Campground.

Arrival of Steam Yacht.

BOOTHBAY HARBOR, July 22. The steam yacht Hannibal arrived here to-night from Bar Harbor. She sails in the morning for Marblehead, Mass. C. H. W. Foster, owner, and Mr. Eaton, of Boston, are aboard.

THE SALVATION ARMY.

The Camp Meeting at Old Orchard.

OLD ORCHARD, July 22. Marshal Ballington Booth and staff finished their service at the Salvation Army camp meeting to-night. Rousing meetings were held this afternoon and evening. The forenoon was devoted to a council Marshal Booth meeting the field officers at the Tabernacle and instructing them concerning the management of the corps. Several new minor officers were assigned stations. The Marshal and staff left for Boston on the evening train and will be at the headquarters in New York to-morrow. The camp meeting will continue till to-morrow night.

FROM PORTLAND.

A Little Boy Drowned.

PORTLAND, July 22. Herbert Glencross, six years old, fell off the Marginal way this afternoon and was drowned. His father was Marshall Glencross, a shoemaker.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Death of William G. Saltonstall.

BOSTON, July 22. News has been received here of the death of William G. Saltonstall, of this city, in Italy. He was 58 years old and followed the sea for a number of years. OUR NEW SISTER STATES.

North Dakota.

BISMARCK, North Dakota, July 22. This afternoon's session of the Constitutional Convention ordered that all standing committees be required to report by Thursday of the present week. The time for the introduction of proposed articles for the constitution expired to-day. The event of the day was the consideration of a resolution for a single body of the Legislature. The leading champion of the one house idea was Stevens, of Ransom, who delivered a carefully prepared speech, citing the fact that the Declaration of Independence was adopted and promulgated by a single body, the constitutions of the States were all adopted by single bodies, and great cities were governed by single bodies. No vote was taken.

Delegates were present from various parts of the United States and Canada, representing over 108,000 tanners, curriers, morocco dressers, in fact all branches connected with the leather working trade. The object of the convention was the adoption of a plan to secure equalization of wages paid in different sections of the country for the same class of work. Master Workman D. F. Moreland said to-day: "The result of the convention as far as the delegates are concerned was very satisfactory. There are upwards of $10,000 in the national assembly and the treasury can command through locals between $40,000 and $50,000, so that our financial condition is most satisfactory. The Leather Workers' Journal, our official organ has been put on a sound basis and will be published weekly instead of monthly. Within the next three months organizers will be sent to organize all leather workers not in the union with us."

A QUESTION OF RIGHTS.

A Railroad and Steamboat War.

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, July 22. The Pan Handle Railroad Company recently received permission from the Secretary of War to close up the channel of the river at Steubenville bridge for the purpose of replacing the channel span. The river men appealed in vain to the Secretary of War to have the permit revoked. When the coal fleet arrived at the bridge this morning they found the channel almost entirely filled with heavy piles, arranged in bents. After a short consultation, without advising the men at work in the channel of their intention, the coal boat advance, with three barges abreast, came at full speed upon the pile bents, breaking down twenty-five, and breaking the pile-driver barge loose from its moorings, badly damaging it. The men on the barge from being drawn under the tow. Work was immediately suspended. Hardly had they time to recover when another boat, the Pacific, came down by the same route and took away thirty-five more piles, leaving over half the channel clear for the following boats. The railroad company ordered the construction of large apron piers above the bridge, which will effect to fully close the channel for boats. Both the railroad and steamboat men are equally determined to enforce their rights in the premises. Serious trouble is threatened and will demand the interference of the government to settle.

INCIPIENT RACE WAR.

Trouble Between Whites and Blacks in Texas.

BASTROP, Texas, July 22. An incipient race war has begun in Bastrop county. At the last election the negroes were in a majority and elected several of their number to office. The overbearing conduct of these officials has been such as to cause the white people much discomfort, all of which was quietly borne, however, until a few days ago when a respectable white man was shot and instantly killed by a colored justice, without the slightest provocation. The whites in the county became enraged at the actions of the negroes and people armed with revolvers and knives hastened to the scene of shooting. The wildest confusion prevailed and in the fighting which ensued four whites and four negroes were killed and five or six others fatally wounded. Further trouble is feared.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Killed by a Fall.

PORTSMOUTH, July 22. William Frye, of Eliot, Me., aged 77 years, climbed a ladder to the top of his hay mow Sunday afternoon. In getting from the ladder to the mow he grasped a peg in a beam, which broke, precipitating him to the floor and striking on his head he fractured his skull, death resulting instantly.

A Balloon Passes Over Louisville, Ky.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 22. An inflated bag answering to the gas holder of the Campbell air ship passed over this city last night and was watched two hours. It went straight across the city from northeast to southwest, as if carried by a steady current, and appeared about two miles high.

Motion for a New Trial.

The Debate on the Royal Grants.

Labouchere, in the debate in the House of Commons to-day on the grant to the Princess Louise moved the rejection of the report of the committee and to substitute therefor an address to the Queen reciting, among other things, that the sums already voted by Parliament to the royal family should be amply sufficient for all proper purposes, and if further supplies are needed they ought to be provided through retrenchment of the expenses of the royal family and not by such demands upon the taxpayers.

Mr. Gladstone, although he censured the government for its attitude, voted with the majority of the committee on the royal grant.

The report of the committee on royal grants advises that at the proper time, a law be passed, providing that future sovereigns shall have no claim to Parliamentary provisions for grand children.

The Cricketers.

The Metropolitan Cricket Club presented a very strong team against the Americans to-day. W. G. Grace and other well known amateurs were members of the team. The Britishers made a vigorous play from the very beginning and scored in the first innings 383 runs. The fielding of the Americans was regarded as rather lax. The Americans scored 85 runs for four wickets, when the stumps were drawn.

The Maine Central depot presented an unusually business like appearance yesterday upon the arrival and departure of each train, when a very large number of passengers were going back and forth upon the platform. The railroad officials report a very large eastern travel.

The steamer Lizzie M. Snow made a trial trip down river yesterday afternoon and worked to excellent advantage. It was her first trip with the exception of a short trip Saturday afternoon. She is a first rate little steamer and will be another good addition to the large fleet of small steamers upon the river.

Last evening a horse owned and driven by a Mr. Green became frightened on Broadway at the cars and ran away upon the street. The carriage was overturned and Mr. Green dragged some distance upon the sidewalk. He was badly bruised, but escaped without having any bones broken. The animal continued on the run up the street and collided with a carriage coming the opposite way, smashing it considerably.

The "English Ballad" concert at City Hall to-morrow evening will undoubtedly prove an attraction to many who will desire to hear the gems of English song which will be rendered upon that occasion. A very interesting programme has been arranged for the event. The participants will be Miss Dora Wiley, Miss Wasgatt, Mrs. Tuck, Dr. E. T. Wasgatt, Mr. E. L. Jordan, Mr. Oscar E. Wasgatt and Mr. E. C. Adams. The concert will begin at 8.15 o'clock.

OFF FOR THE WEST. Mr. W. E. Gibbs and wife, of Glenburn, will leave to-morrow for Puyallup, W. T. They have two sons residing there one of whom has been there sixteen years and the other two years. The former has been home on a short visit, and will return with his father and mother, who having sold their property here intend to make a permanent home with their boys. The best wishes of a large circle of friends in this vicinity will accompany Mr. Gibbs and wife to their new home.

A PLEASANT OUTING. A party of thirteen female employes of the Penobscot Laundry had a pleasant ride to Chemo Lake yesterday, being driven to that place in one of Brown & Dillingham's wagonettes by Mr. William McPherson. The day was spent in sailing about the lake and in fishing. The latter was very lively sport and when it ceased and the noses counted it was found that 185 perch and 35 black bass were the spoils of the day. Mr. McPherson was kept busy baiting the hooks, and did not take part in the fishing, which was fine sport for the fisherwomen. The party returned in the evening delighted with the day's outing.

FOREST FIRE EXTINGUISHED. The fire which has been in progress for about two weeks in the woods in the region of Pemadumcook and Millinocket Lakes was extinguished by the rain of Saturday, which came in season to prevent further damage. It is reported that the fire started at the foot of Pemadumcook Lake and burnt everything in its path to Millinocket Lake, a distance of over twelve miles. The ground and the timber were dry, and the fire was directly in the path of a "blow down," a line of trees miles in extent. These trees, which did not fall upon the ground, but were held up in a reclining position by other trees, became wholly or partly dead and in consequence very dry, burned like tinder when the fire reached them. It is [illegible] that the fire was [illegible]

There was nothing new yesterday from the drives but it was thought that the East Branch must have reached the boom and that the West Branch must be coming along well over the Mattawamkeag rapids, helped by the rain of Saturday.

Miss Bertie M. Kingsbury, only daughter of Hon. Thomas R. Kingsbury, of Bradford, was united in marriage in that town on Saturday last, to Rev. Edwin H. Hadlock, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in Waldoboro, Rev. S. T. Page performing the marriage service. We join our congratulations to those of the many friends of the bride in this city and vicinity.

MR. WILLIAMS' NEW PLAY. Mr. Chas. E. Williams has had his new play, which he is writing, copyrighted and he received the copyright papers yesterday. The play is entitled "Mehel Dhu Mac," or "The Outlaw Chief." The play is written for Mr. E. P. Sullivan, who contracted with Mr. Williams a short time ago. The skeleton is now completed and Mr. Williams is engaged in the filling in process. The play deals with the rise of the Irishmen and covers a period in dialogue and action from the fourteenth century to 1848, it being founded upon the historical events of that period. It is original in conception. The leading role was created with special reference to Mr. Sullivan. The play will be completed by September 15th, according to the contract.

CHANGE OF LOCATION. A meeting of the Board of Municipal Officers was held yesterday to consider the matter of removing the City Agency, so that the place now occupied might be used by the American Express Company. After a discussion of the matter it was voted to make the removal as soon as some other place can be found. After this place and the rooms now occupied by Mr. W. H. Bradford, insurance agent, are vacated, workmen will at once begin making the necessary changes so that the two may be made into one. As soon as this is done the American Express Company will move in. The situation is an excellent one and the company will have plenty of room for its business, instead of being cramped as at present.

THE ST. JOHN CARNIVAL. Several of our citizens left yesterday for St. John to attend the carnival, and quite a large number passed through the city on their way to that place. The carnival will extend through the week and extensive preparations have been made for the event. St. John will probably be crowded during the progress of the carnival. One of the features will be the ball games to be played between the St. Johns and other Canadian teams. One of the nines which the St. Johns will meet is the Torontos, a very strong aggregation of base ball talent. The published programme of the carnival indicates an event of much interest.

DEATH OF UPTON TREAT, ESQ. Upton Treat, Esq., died at his home in Frankfort yesterday morning at the age of seventy-three years, after an illness of several months from a complication of diseases due to old age. At the time of his death he was postmaster of the town. In former years he was shipbuilder and merchant, and conducted his business with ability and judgment. He was a highly respected gentleman in the community in which he lived and had many friends in this city who will deeply regret his death. He leaves a widow and two daughters, Mrs. Fred B. Cutler, of Boston, and Miss Charlotte Treat of Frankfort, who will receive the deep sympathy of many friends.

WINTERPORT NOTES. Our correspondent writes: The funeral services of Mrs. H. O. Snow who died on Thursday last of paralysis were held at her late residence on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. H. W. Norton. Mrs. Snow was a very estimable woman and was highly esteemed in the community. She leaves a husband, two sons and two daughters, as well as a large circle of friends to mourn her loss.——Dr. Edmond Abbott, of Providence, R. I., is in town for a short visit.——Capt. C. E. Littlefield arrived on Sunday's boat.——A dwelling house belonging to the Cushing estate, and occupied by the family of Thomas Coppin, mate of steamer Katahdin, was destroyed by fire on Monday morning. Cause of fire unknown, but was supposed to have caught from a defective chimney or sparks on the roof. Part of the household goods were saved. There was a partial insurance on both house and furniture. It is reported that $100 in money was lost in the flames.

DEATH OF AN OLD EXPRESSMAN. The death yesterday at Old Town, of Mr. Asa DeWitt, at the advanced age of eighty-six years and three months, removes from among us an old landmark and one who was well known to our older citizens, and highly esteemed by everyone who knew him. Mr. DeWitt was one of the very earliest expressmen who went out of this city, running between here and Old Town on the old Bangor and Old Town, or as it is better known as the Veazie railroad, beginning so long ago that the date is difficult to fix. For many years, owing to lameness and infirmities of years, he has been out of business and resided at his home in Old Town.

RAILROAD SHOPS AT MCADAM. The Calais Times says: Mr. G. A. Haggerty has his new shop at McAdam well started, and the railway works are being rebuilt with vigor. All the machinists, blacksmiths and others who for the time had been thrown out of work, were recalled and are employed at former wages, and others are at work. The building at Fredericton Junction, formerly used as an engine room, is being taken down and will be transported to McAdam, where, being of exactly the same dimensions as the machine shop burned, it will be re-erected on the foundation of the latter.

LAKE HEBRON NOTES. The Lake Hebron House is nearly full of guests at the present time, and a party from Boston will arrive there to-day. Some of the members will stop at the hotel and others at the cottages in the vicinity of the hotel. Last Friday evening the Monson band gave a concert upon the veranda of the hotel. The music so impressed a broncho attached to a top buggy and driven by two ladies, that the animal in the midst of his hilarity tipped over the carriage, throwing the ladies to the ground. Fortunately neither of them was injured and the broncho was prevented from running away. Later another broncho, ridden by a young lady, bucked, threw the rider over his head, and then fell upon her. A number of gentlemen ran to her assistance and pulled the animal away. The young lady was badly bruised, but fortunately no bones were broken. The fishing at Lake Hebron is said never to have been better, and the numbers of landlocked salmon and trout that are being caught are the largest for years. [illegible]

Mr. Wright, of Boston, an experienced electrical expert, will arrive here to-day or to-morrow to inspect the electrical light plant, previous to its acceptance by the city.

DEATH OF MRS. E. G. BENSON. The many friends of Mrs. Eleanor G. Benson, widow of the late Seth E. Benson, will regret to learn of her death which occurred on Sunday afternoon at the age of eighty-five years. She leaves to mourn her loss three sons, Mr. S. E. Benson, of Melrose, Mass., Mr. S. D. Benson, of this city, and Mr. Charles E. Benson, of Boston, and one daughter, Mrs. Sarah Ellen, widow of the late Rev. F. E. Shaw, of this city, and they will have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in this city and elsewhere. The funeral services will take place at her late residence, No. 43 Center street, this afternoon at three o'clock.

MAINE PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Arrived Here Last Night—Leave this Morning for Mount Kineo and St. John.

The Maine Press Association started yesterday on their annual excursion, arrangements having been made to visit St. John and witness the carnival, and to go to St. Andrews and enjoy the hospitality of the Algonquin. According to prearranged plans the party, which arrived on the 5.05 P. M. train, took supper at the Maine Central restaurant, the intention having been to proceed on the night train to St. John. Much to their disappointment word was received from St. John on Saturday that the hotel where arrangements had been made for their accommodation had repudiated their agreement, owing to the great rush of people to the city, and a despatch sent to St. Andrews, elicited the fact that the Algonquin was also full.

Rooms were taken last night at the Windsor Hotel, and landlords Pickard & Durgin did everything possible for the comfort of their unexpected guests. A Council of War was held last evening, the situation considered and various suggestions as to the course the party should pursue were discussed, with the result that the party decided to divide, a portion going to Kineo, a place which all delight to visit, while another portion will go to St. John and take their chances for accommodation, going later to join the others at Kineo. Those who will go to St. John are the following: Col. J. M. Adams, wife and daughter; Miss Bedlow; Misses Richards and Riley; Mr. Abel Davis, Mrs. Morrill, Miss Haskell, Mr. C. B. Haskell, Mr. William A. Woodward and wife, Mr. Charles S. Parker, Mr. C. W. Robbins and Miss Gertrude Averill.

The Gilman Case.

There were no new developments in the Gilman case yesterday. Interviews were had with the prisoner in jail, but they were productive of no results, as he absolutely refused to say anything of importance in regard to his case and finally told the turnkey to deny admission to any who sought to talk with him. He appeared to be in good spirits. The wife of Gilman rode in from Corinth yesterday in company with Ira M. Davis, Esq., and was met here by her father and taken to his home in Brewer. G. Frank Hill, Esq., and Dr. Philbrick, of East Corinth, were also in town yesterday and were interviewed by a representative of THE WHIG. They do not take any stock in the so-called confession of Gilman and think that it is a made up affair, possibly founded on something of a similar nature in connection with the case of Whitney and Foster. Dr. Philbrick also says that the stories in circulation that he had charged Gilman with embezzlement are entirely without foundation. The feeling in the town seems to be divided in relation to the story about the New York accomplices, some believing there is some truth in it and others entirely discrediting it. The time for the hearing has been fixed for Wednesday forenoon at ten o'clock.

THE GAME LAWS.

In the following communication from the Commissioners of Fish and Game, calling attention to the laws regulating close time for taking moose, deer and caribou, will be found a hint worthy of consideration by violators of the law:

"No person shall, between the first days of January and October in any manner hunt, kill or destroy any moose under the penalty of one hundred dollars for each moose so hunted, killed or destroyed." Chapter 40, section 9, R. S.

"No person shall, between the first days of January and October, in any manner hunt, kill or destroy any deer or caribou under the penalty of forty dollars for each deer or caribou so hunted, killed or destroyed." Chapter 40, section 10, R. S.

"All Fish and Game Wardens are hereby directed to rigidly enforce the law against all persons having animals so captured in their possession, by taking out warrants against them for hunting in close time."

Maine Experiment Station.

SOMETHING OF THE WORK IT HAS ACCOMPLISHED OF INTEREST TO MAINE FARMERS.

The annual report for 1888 of the Maine Agricultural Experiment Station connected with the Maine State College, Orono, comprises some 225 pages and is made up of the reports of the various station officers in the several departments. From a cursory glance through the volume it is evident it contains much that is instructive and valuable. Every farmer in Maine should peruse its pages and profit by it. Below are some of the facts and conclusions evolved.

VALUE OF MUCK.

The analysis of five different samples of muck show that there is a great difference in the value of the article. Compared with stable manure it was found the average of nitrogen was about the same.

Prof. Jordan says. Compared with stable manure the average for nitrogen is nearly the same, but the mucks are inferior in the quantities of mineral compounds. It should not be forgotten that the ingredients of the stable manure are much more available than those of the mucks. Until the muck is composted we may believe that it will furnish but little food to a growing plant. If, however, by treatment with lime, or under the influence of the fermentation of the manure pile the nitrogen it contains is largely rendered available, the muck bed may be made a not insignificant source of plant food. The whole matter of its use turns upon the cost of getting it to the barn, and from the barn to the field, as compared with what is saved by its use as an absorbent, plus the value of the small amount of plant food which it contains. The latter factor would not average over 82 per ton in the case of five samples analyzed, reckoning the nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash at such prices as these ingredients would cost in coarse bone, raw South Carolina rock and muriate of potash, and it is doubtful if these ingredients are as valuable in the muck as in the materials named. This, at least, is plainly taught by these analyses—that each muck bed must be judged upon its own merits. There is muck and muck.

COMPLETE FERTILIZERS.

Box experiments with fertilizers planted to grain, as reported by Prof. Walter Balentine, showed that all the crude phosphates, except apatite, caused a large increase in the crop.

In field experiments, instituted with a view to gain information upon several points, among the most prominent, the comparative results from the use of stable manure and commercial fertilizers, the results are: Dissolved bone black, with potash and ammonia salts, gave the highest yield of grain, fine ground bone standing next, while fine ground South Carolina rock and stable manure produce about the same results. In 1888, without the further addition of manure, the stable manure stands far ahead of the others in its yield of hay, while the fine ground bone stands next.

Prof. Balentine says: In the experiment with partial and complete fertilizers, those plots which were fertilized with the complete fertilizer gave the largest yield in grain; and while the heaviest application does not seem to be necessary to produce the maximum yield of grain the first year, the heaviest application is felt in increased yield in the hay crop.

From some unaccountable reasons the medium application of the complete fertilizer fails to increase the yield of the grain the second year, and the yield of hay the third year is correspondingly low.

In field experiments by farmers, the details of which are given, the complete fertilizers are the most profitable. There are a few cases where partial fertilizers are more economical for the time being.

CATTLE FOOD—GRASSES AND SOME COMMON WEEDS COMPARED.

The value of food is mainly in the albuminoid elements it contains. Two general classes of compounds classed as protein form the most valuable part of food. In 100 parts of air-dry substance of the following plants the albuminoid elements classed as protein were: Alsike clover in full bloom, 12.6[illegible]; white clover in bloom for some time, 15.12; blue joint cut late, 9.19; orchard grass past bloom seven to eight days, 7.66; red top in full bloom, 8.73; wild oat grass in full bloom, 6.87; quitch grass in bloom, 8.50; buttercup in full bloom, 9.06; white weed in full bloom, 8.41.

It will appear a little strange to farmers that white weed, quitch grass and buttercup have a composition superior to the more highly prized timothy and red top.

Prof. Balentine adds:

The popular impression is different, nevertheless, and if farmers are correct in their conclusions, we must look farther than the ordinary analysis of fodder in order to learn its feeding value, for most certainly stock feeders are not willing to allow that blue joint is more valuable than good upland grasses like timothy and red top, as the analyses seem to show. We need more information than is given by the figures of an ordinary table of fodder analyses.

We should remember that in estimating protein by the formula Nx6.25, we learn nothing of the character of the nitrogen compounds in different feeding stuffs, that the nitrogen free-extractive matter is determined by difference, with no knowledge whether the amounts present of the more valuable carbohydrates, like starch, and sugar are relatively the same in all, and that the nutrition to be derived from a food depends as much upon its digestibility as upon its composition.

It may be that after we learn all that we can on these points we shall come to the conclusion that farmers are very much influenced by the palatableness of a food in forming their opinions of their value, and it may be that some of our feeding stuffs commonly regarded as inferior, simply need to be rendered palatable in order to become efficient cattle foods. We have no evidence showing that fodders are necessarily nutritious in proportion as they are relished by cattle.

In fact the qualities which render a cattle food palatable have no direct connection with its capacity for sustaining animal life.

WHOLE CORN VS CORN MEAL.

The results of two years' experiments in feeding pigs favored the feeding of whole corn instead of grinding it. It seemed to produce as much gain, pound for pound, as meal, and the cost of grinding saved.

The compounding of rations for the different classes of farm animals occupies considerable space in the report which every farmer will find instructive, and valuable carried out in practice.

THE ENTOMOLOGIST,

Prof. F. L. Harvey, occupies considerable space in giving the results of his investigations and orchardists and fruit-growers all over the State can but be benefited by a careful perusal of this part of the report. The text is accompanied with numerous illustrations of all the most destructive insects and their life history given with the best methods known of preventing their ravages. This is very important department work, and the horticulturists and fruit-growers of Maine are to be congratulated that the work is in such good hands.
